

Coronavirus COVID-19 Update

FM Global is implementing prudent risk management activities to limit the spread of COVID-19 among our employees while ensuring we continue to conduct business with minimal disruption to our clients.

While many of our offices are currently closed around the world, we remain open for business and fully committed to providing our clients with the highest quality insurance products, services, claims management and uninterrupted loss prevention guidance.

If you are a client and have immediate questions or concerns, please contact a member of your client service or account team. They are fully equipped to work remotely and all contact information remains the same.

We hope you stay healthy and safe during this uncertain time.
